

Press Conference and "Meet and Greet" for Greg Robinson's Power Productions
"Philly Barnburner III"
"Time to settle unfinished business"
set for Chickie's and Pete's.
Monday, April 16th 6:30PM-8:30PM

Who:

Local lightweight superstars, Angel Ocasio (6-0-1, 1KO) of MAK Boxing and Camden, New Jersey's Jason Sosa (4-1-2, 1KO) meet for the first time, face to face to discuss their Philly fight of the year candidate, which ended in a controversial draw, that had both parties believing they had won. Both combatants will also speak about their long awaited rematch, where they will square off to settle unfinished business. The stakes have been raised in this much talked about eight round rematch as the vacant USBC lightweight title belt will be on the line in the scheduled eight round main event of the evening.

The co-feature for the card to be held at the National Guard Armory in Northeast Philadelphia on Friday April 20th, will bring out the long standing, traditional Mexican-Puerto Rican boxing rivalry as Philly fan favorite and former top rated US amateur, Miguel "No Fear" Cartagena takes on tough Mexican bantamweight Jose "Chili" Rivera (3-5-2). Both fighters will be in attendance to discuss their six round co-feature of the evening.

Many of the best local and regional talent that made "Barnburner II" on one of the highest attended and most talked about shows in Philly, will be on hand to speak about their bouts on this can't miss card.

Joey Dawejko (6-0-1, 2KO's)-Philly's rising heavyweight prospect, who will face undefeated Excell Holmes (2-0-1, 1KO).

The comeback of the much heralded lightweight Tim Witherspoon JR (6-2-1,2KO's), who is set to battle an opponent soon to be announced.

Pedro Martinez (6-5, 3KO's)- Rugged Philly cruiserweight, who will look to put the first loss on Venroy July's (10-0-2, 4KO's) undefeated resume.

Georgie "The Chemist" Guralnik (2-0, 1KO) - The hard hitting Heavyweight prospect, who will face nineteen fight veteran Tafo Asongwed.

Brian Donahue (2-1)-Action packed northeast Philly junior middleweight.

Isiah Seldon (6-0, 3KO's)- Rising heavyweight prospect and the son of the renowned heavyweight Bruce "The Atlantic City Express" Seldon.

Saud Clark-The long awaited professional debut of the explosive Philly welterweight sensation.
